DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-5, drawn to a process of manufacturing of an optical compensator, classified in class 428, subclass 1.3.
- II. Claims 6-9, drawn to an LC optical light shutter apparatus, classified in class 349, subclass 122.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case claim 1 details a specific manner of constructing an optical compensation polymer layer for the LC optical light shutter as part of Applicant's invention limiting the process to using a monomer or prepolymer mass and hard and soft spacers, whereas the apparatus claims recite materials used to construct the LC light shutter while leaving out any limitation toward the process. Thus, the apparatus as proposed in claims 6-9 could be made by another and materially different process as is old and well known in the art, making restriction of the groups proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

If Group II is elected, the following species election requirement applies.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I: the specifics being an LC light shutter in which the polarizers are directly laminated by means of an adhesive to the light shutter instead of directly to the LC cell (claim 6)

Species II: the specifics being an LC light shutter in which the polarizers are laminated by means of an adhesive to the boundary surfaces of the LC cell (claim 7).

Species III: the specifics being an embodiment in which the first optical path for the ordinary and the extraordinary rays is smaller than the difference of the optical paths for the ordinary and the extraordinary rays (claim 8).

Species IV: the specifics being an embodiment in which the first optical path is greater than the difference of the optical paths for the ordinary and the extraordinary rays (claim 9).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species and subspecies that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
